

WESTCHESTER RISING

Friday, October 29, 2010

Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester Celebrates 18th Anniversary

Right: (l to r) Event Co-Chair, White Plains resident William F. Flooks; Honoree, Rye resident Dr. William Martimucci; Founder, Bronxville resident Anna L. Shereff; Honors, Hastings-on-Hudson residents Michele and Dr. Terry Geller; and Event Co-Chair, Darien, Conn. resident James P. O'Toole

Left: (l to r) WFAS-FM radio personality, Hartsdale resident Jay Michaels; WFAS-FM General Sales Manager, Cortlandt Manor resident Kevin Garrity; HPCW Public Affairs Director, Ossining resident Holly Benedict; and Tiffany & Co., White Plains Director, Westport, Conn. Resident, William J. McGuinness

Right: Founder of the Louis H. Shereff Caregiver Program, Bronxville resident Anna L. Shereff (left), with HPCW Executive Director, White Plains resident Kate Colburn, MA

Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester (HPCW) recently held its Ninth Annual Gala Cocktail Reception, "In Celebration," at the Westchester Country Club.

The honorees included Michele and Terry Geller, D.D.S., of Hastings-on-Hudson and William A. Martimucci, M.D., Medical Director of The Osborn and Founding Member of Westmed Medical Group, Rye, for their commitment to and support of HPCW.

Mrs. Anna L. Shereff of Bronxville was recognized for her longtime commitment to HPCW.

White Plains resident William F. Flooks, Jr., owner of Beecher Funeral Home in Pleasantville and Darien, Conn. resident and HPCW Board Chair James P. O'Toole co-chaired the event.