

NONPROFIT NEWS

Kathleen
Lonerga

Michael J.
Amoruso

William F.
Flocks

Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester's newest members of its 2010-11 board of directors.

HPC announces 3 new board members

WHITE PLAINS: Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester has voted William F. Flocks Jr., Kathleen Lonergan and Michael J. Amoruso as the newest members of its 2010-11 board of directors.

Flocks, of White Plains, is president and CEO of Beecher Funeral Home. He is president of the Pleasantville Chamber of Commerce and director of clinical embalming at American Academy McAllister Institute of Funeral Service.

Lonergan serves as clinical operations manager at The Obsorn in Rye. She is a director on the Board of New York Association of Homes and Services for the Aged and a member of the Rye Senior Advocacy Committee.

Amoruso, of Rye Brook, is managing partner of Amoruso & Amoruso, LLP, where he focuses on elder law, asset preservation, estate planning, estate administration and guardianship.

He serves as chair of the New York State Bar Association Elder Law Section and is a member of the Executive Committee and former Chair of the Legislation Committee, the Estate & Tax Planning Committee and the Leadership Task Force.

He received the 2010 NYSBA Elder Law Award as a principal drafter of NYSBA's significant amendments to the 2009 Power of Attorney statute and form.

Submitted by Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester.