

Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester Receives Donation from KeyBank Foundation

White Plains, NY - (August 3, 2010) – Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester (HPCW) today announced that KeyBank Foundation has made a $5,000 donation to support its Complementary Care Program and The Anna and Louis H. Shereff Caregiver Program.

KeyBank Foundation is a non-profit charitable foundation funded by Key Corporation. Through its civic programs, corporate contributions and volunteerism, Key Foundation supports organizations that foster economic self-sufficiency, principally in locations where the company operates.

“We are grateful to KeyBank and Key Foundation for their support,” said Kate Colburn, M.A., executive director of HPCW. “The funds donated will support individuals in our care as well as their families,” she added.

John D’Agostino, Senior Vice President, Business Banking, KeyBank, said that he and KeyBank are pleased to support the programs and services provided by Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester. “They are vital to the support of individuals caring for loved ones with a life-limiting illness as well as for those who have experienced the loss of a loved one,” he added.

Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester is located at 311 North Street, Suite 204, White Plains, NY. For additional information, visit www.hospiceofwestchester.com or call 914.682.1484.
