

Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester Ushers in Jazz Season at Jacob Burns Film Center

White Plains, NY - (June 24, 2010) – Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester (HPCW) recently hosted a screening of Jazz on a Summer's Day, the film that highlights the 1958 Newport Jazz Festival, at Jacob Burns Film Center. The film, which features two of jazz's greatest musicians, trumpeter Louis Armstrong and trombonist Jack Teagarden, won the 1999 Library of Congress Award.

Funds raised at the event will support HPCW in its mission to provide extraordinary and dignified comfort, care and compassion to every individual and family facing a serious or life-threatening illness.

Guests enjoyed a dinner at Mediterraneo Ristorante in Pleasantville, a live performance by the Westchester Jazz Orchestra and a post-film reception. The event was sponsored by Michele and Terry Geller of Hastings-on-Hudson.

Hospice & Palliative Care of Westchester is located at 311 North Street, Suite 204, White Plains, NY. For additional information, visit www.hospiceofwestchester.com or call 914.682.1484.
